

Homecoming Hits Committee Stage

"Blot Out Penn!" Already enthusiasm for Homecoming is mounting as the Homecoming Committee, under the co-chairmanship of Jerry Staehling and George Whinna, both seniors, begins to operate.

Committee heads were appointed last spring. In turn, each committee head has a group working under him in a designated area.

Arlene Abbs, sophomore, is chairman of Campus Decorations. The theme will be "Christ, Our Cornerstone." Wartburg's five-year plan for new buildings and campus improvement will also be stressed.

Jim Schneider and Tom Rappath, juniors, are co-chairmen of the Homecoming Parade Committee. It is probable that the parade will end on the campus this year and floats will be displayed the entire weekend.

Kastle Kapers is headed by Ron Burrichter, junior, and will have a "new look" this year. Burrichter urged anyone interested in writing or performing to contact him.

Jim Ollenburt, senior, has charge of the Game Program, Coronation and Queen's Float Committee.

The campus church council is directing activities concerning Homecoming church services and chapel.

Joyce Porath, senior, is chairman for the Queen's Reception.

The banquet will again be at Carver's Restaurant. In charge of arrangements are Co-chairmen Bob Wubben, sophomore, and Marna Peters, senior.

Art Ruppel, sophomore, chairman of the Novelties Committee, said that the Homecoming button will be a new, larger size this year. A new novelty, a banner for automobiles, will also be introduced.

Included in the weekend's festivities will be the dedication of Hebron Hall. Following the dedication ceremonies will be Open House. Jackie Lohr and JoAnne Gammelin, juniors, are co-chairmen of this committee.

Darlene Wesenberg, sophomore, and Dick Barton, senior, are co-chairmen of the Publicity Committee. One of the duties of this committee is the planning of Mystery Convo.

Russell Schofield, senior, is chairman of the theme float.

Fred Lichte, senior, is bonfire chairman.

Dan Diekhoff, senior, Dance Committee chairman, has announced that Hal Munro has been chosen to play for the Homecoming dance. Dance theme is "Moon River."

Special Contests chairman is Charles Knorr, senior.

With an undertaking like Homecoming come many expenses, and Doug Aden, senior is financial chairman.

There is still a need for members on some of the committees. Anyone wishing to participate may contact Staehling or Whinna.

Pres. C. H. Becker attended the last general committee meeting. He asked the committee to urge all the students to join in and work together to make this the best Homecoming ever.

Convo To Feature 'J.B.'

Next week's convocation will feature the introduction of the all-college book "J.B." on Tuesday, and on Thursday, Paul Jacobs, a recognized interpreter of contemporary music.

"SOME UNANSWERED Questions—the Introduction of the All-College Book, 'J.B.'" is the title of Tuesday's program, to be conducted by Dr. Phillip Kildahl, English Department, and Dr. E. A. Shick, Christianity Department.

"J.B." is a Pulitzer prize-winning play by Archibald MacLeish. It parallels the Biblical book of Job. "J.B." draws a comparison between a piece of ancient literature and a piece of contemporary literature.

COPIES OF THE all-college book may be obtained in the college book store.

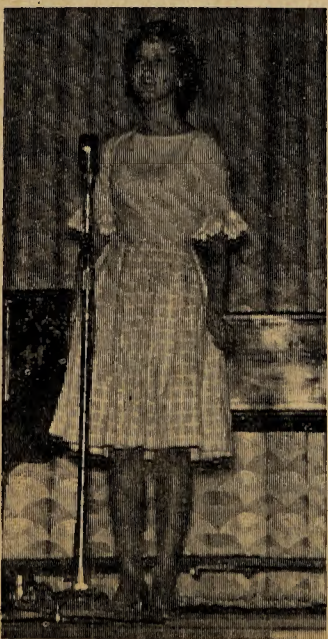

Academic Life Committee will sponsor several discussions of the book and related topics throughout the first semester, according to Paul Wilken, chairman.

JACOBS HAS STUDIED several years in Europe and besides being an interpreter of music is also an accomplished pianist.

He will play numbers by such composers as C.P.E. Bach, Debussy and several contemporary artists, including Stockhausen.

Following convo Jacobs will meet with piano students and other music students, according to Pastor Herman Diers, college chaplain.

Freshman Talent Winner

JANICE FRIEDRICHS won first place in the talent contest last night by singing two songs from "West Side Story." Second place winner was Naomi Seno with a Hawaiian hula dance and third place was won by Ann Wesender.

Four Frosh Tickets On Sale

POPS CONCERT co-chairmen, seniors Jon Gruber and Emery Davis, get publicity under way. The Four Freshmen are scheduled to appear on campus on Oct. 2.

Tickets are on sale now, and students are urged to get them early for the Fall Pops Concert, Oct. 2. It will feature the Four Freshmen, according to Jon Gruber and Emery Davis, concert co-chairmen.

Publicity has gone out to newspapers and radio stations within a 50-mile radius of Waverly, and 125 posters have been placed in various places both on and off-campus.

About one thousand tickets have been distributed so far, according to Gruber. Students may purchase tickets from their dorm representative, who is listed on the poster placed in each dorm.

Off-campus students may obtain their tickets from seniors Dick Buchsteiner, Fred Dierks, Gruber or Davis.

Tickets are also on sale at the three Waverly drug stores, the Waverly Bowl Inn, the Music Corner and several business places in both Cedar Falls and Waterloo.

No reserved seats are offered, and all tickets are on sale for the price of two dollars.

In the past few years Pops Concerts have featured instrumental groups, such as Stan Kenton and Dave Brubeck last year and Chris Barber and Louis Armstrong the previous year.

Voting by the student body last spring showed that the students would prefer to have one vocal group and one instrumental group perform during the year as Pops Concert guests.

The Four Freshmen will be the first vocal group since The Crew-Cuts, who appeared at Wartburg for a Pops Concert several years ago.

In surveys conducted by Metronome, Down Beat, Billboard, Playboy and United Press International, the Four Freshmen have been named the "Best Vocal Group" on several occasions.

Members of the group include Bob Flanagan, top voice playing trombone and string bass; Ross Barbour, master of ceremonies, third voice playing drum and trumpet; Ken Albers, bass voice, trumpet and mellophone; and Bill Comstock, second voice and guitar.

Tickets Available For First Series

Reserved seat tickets for the first Artist Series number will be available to students and faculty between 8 a.m. and 4 p.m. next Thursday and Friday, according to Muriel Stuepfert, Artist Series Committee member.

Tickets may be reserved at the ticket booth in the foyer of the Chapel-auditorium. Activity tickets must be presented for each reservation.

A reserved seat ticket is necessary for admittance to all Artist Series productions, but one student may not reserve more than eight tickets.

This year's Artist Series opens Oct. 9 with Dame Judith Anderson in her two greatest roles, Medea and Lady Macbeth.

Program Is Under Way In Intramural Forensics

A general meeting of key members in the intramural forensics program was held in Fuchs Lounge last Thursday evening to discuss plans for the year's forensics program.

John H. Ness, speech director, led the group of about twenty interested students.

Ness first pointed out the inadvisability of inter-collegiate debate because of the time involved in preparation and traveling, the extensive budget required and the monotony of debating one question throughout the year.

Therefore, intramural debates will be held on a competitive basis between the housing units both on and off campus.

Teams will be selected from each unit to debate each side of questions on campus, national and international issues. They will debate before audiences of all interested students and faculty and be judged by certain instructors.

Winners will be determined on a cumulative point basis at the end of preliminary and final rounds, and a system of awards has been considered.

Approximately four or five debates will be held this year depending upon student interest and participation, according to Ness.

As a tentative issue for the first debate, class attendance and the cut system may be used. Other suggested questions are U.S. withdrawal from the U.N., abolishment of income tax, abolishment of farm subsidies and abolishment of intercollegiate athletics program at Wartburg.

All students interested in participating either in the planning or actual debating of this program are urged to contact the representative from their respective housing units.

Margaret Rowland, Wartburg; or sophomore Helene Kurtz, Hebron.

Ness emphasized that students need not have had extensive debating experience to participate in the program because they will be instructed in the techniques of debate and have ample time to prepare.

Also, if enough additional interest is shown in a forensics program, inter-collegiate debate and a quiz bowl may be attempted.

The next meeting of the intramural forensics program will take place this Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Fuchs lounge and all that are interested should attend, said Ness.

Lecture Subject Is French Novel

A six-part lecture series on the French novel this fall and winter will be sponsored by the English-Speech-Journalism Department.

This will be the third year for this type of discussion.

Authors to be discussed are Stendahl, to be given by Trevor Owen, Oct. 17; Flaubert, by Miss Erna Moehl, Nov. 13; Hugo, by the Rev. Neil Eckstein, Jan. 8.

Zola by Dr. E. T. Sandberg, Feb. 12; Jules Verne by Dr. G. J. Neumann, March 20; and recent French novelists by Dr. P. A. Kildahl, April 17.

Time and place for the lectures will be announced later, according to Dr. Sandberg, chairman of the English-Speech-Journalism Department, and all lectures will be open to the public.

Social Today

A social will be held this afternoon in Knights Gym for Wartburg and Luther students immediately following the football game.

Social Activities Committee, headed by senior Darryl Ahnemann, is sponsoring the social. Refreshments will be served and three acts from the Freshman Talent Show will be presented.

Is Initiation Ending Near?

We want Outfly, we want Outfly, we want Outfly . . .

Soon the cry will be heard across the campus, and plans and preparations will be made for the big day.

Ausflug — the day that comes twice each year. It is met with feelings of joy, relief, anticipation. Outfly means fun, relaxation, sleep or a general catching up of all the little things that you just don't have time to do or to take time to do any other day.

Outfly is supposed to be held on the day when the greatest number of students desire it. Of course, as with almost anything, there are a few general rules concerning the day:

Outfly is to be held only on Tuesday, Wednesday or Thursday and may not be held on a day before or after any school holiday.

The dates must be chosen by the proper student committee and authorized by student government in order to receive permission for Outfly, according to the regulations as listed in the "Student Handbook."

Also the fact that Spring Outfly will be chosen by the student body president is included in the handbook.

Last spring there was some dissatisfaction in the day selected as Outfly. Some upperclassmen felt that the freshmen had made a lot of noise one night and that this was the only reason Outfly was declared, not considering the fact that it was a poorly timed day for most upperclassmen.

However, this did show that the day was truly spontaneous in that several students and faculty members did not expect it at all.

Fall Outfly for the last few years has been the last big day of frosh initiation. Activities for the orange-beanied group include such things as . . . well, perhaps they'd rather wait and see, anyway.

This year's initiation has been conducted well, and the sophomores, especially the initiation-planning committees, deserve recognition for this accomplishment.

Looking back over past initiations, one must say that the organization and carrying out of the various frosh activities improves every year.

It is important that freshmen fully understand the meaning behind initiation activities. It is for the students' benefit that planned activities are conducted.

Through these activities, whether they be singing the loyalty song, doing exercises, brushing teeth, polishing shoes, wearing goofy dress combinations, wearing green horns on the head or various other sundry amusements, freshmen come to know one another.

Initiation creates a feeling of unity within the class and within the whole student body. It creates a sense of belonging, so much needed by some of the students.

Less chance for such things as homesickness, loneliness and isolation is likely to occur when freshmen are engaged in such activities.

Though the "beanie-wearers" may feel that these first few weeks of hazing are pure torture, when they are looked back upon through the eyes of a sophomore, junior or senior, the picture will change altogether.

Whether Outfly comes within the next few days or the next few weeks, remember that it is your day to do with as you please, and you frosh can look at it with some relief that initiation is fast drawing to a close.

WITH ELECTIONS COMING SOON

Prexy Gives View on Frosh

By Dick Buchsteiner

After viewing the freshman class for two weeks, most upperclassmen have formed their opinions of this new group of Wartburg students.

As a group they have impressed me as being a fine addition to our student body. I base this on various observations during the past two weeks.

The class members responded well by signing up for organizations at Senate Nite, and the class was well represented at the student body meeting last Tuesday.

Buchsteiner The class has spirit, which was demonstrated by the loudness and actions at Amalgamation Nite.

The freshman class is an attentive and receptive group. This was noticeable during the orientation hour in which the Student Senate presented its program. This class seems to be one that is going to be very active.

On Monday evening at 7:30 the freshmen will have their first opportunity to conduct business as a class. At that time they will elect their class officers and senators for the first semester. They will also elect a Homecoming float chairman.

This election, which will be held in the Chapel-auditorium, is always an interesting one to watch. It is a big job to get the class organized, and it is always interesting to see what individuals will emerge as the leaders of the class, and whether or not these same individuals will still be the leaders when the freshmen elect their officers for the second semester.

Any person in the class who feels he or she would like to run for an office should do so. He should make his intentions known to his fellow classmates before Monday night.

Election will be conducted by the student government Elections Committee, which is headed by senior Jim Van Driel. Each freshman will receive 11 ballots, the maximum number that will be needed.

Nominations will be made from the floor, and after they are closed, the first ballot will be used to cut the list of candidates who will be on the final ballot. Each officer will be elected separately, which allows a person who failed in being elected for one office to run for another.

In electing senators, the freshmen will vote for either two boys and one girl or two girls and one boy. This makes it possible for the class to be represented by both sexes in the Senate.

The Squires are on their way to becoming Knights. They take a big step in this direction by taking on the responsibility of electing their class leaders on Monday night. Good luck to all candidates.

At Senate Meet

Passed:
Who's Who elections be carried out according to the specifications set up by the Elections Committee

Paul Wilken accepted as representative on the Educational Policies Committee

To send a thank-you to Lutheran Mutual for its gift in aiding the Convocations program this year

Not Passed:

Catchy Prevues Offered For New Wartburg Film

By Mike Sherer

Homecoming is just around a half-dozen corners, which suggests that some advance publicity is in order. We wonder why no one in Public Relations ever thought of a film promotional for the 'burg?

The biggest job would be devising a catchy prevue, but that problem's been solved already:

★ Don't Miss! . . . Coming Soon! . . . (Flaming color, screen-wide blazing headlines:) "I WAS A TEEN-AGE WARTBURGER" (adapted from the best-seller, "Please, Please, Don't Cut the Campus!"; action music, fanfare, more flaming color, more screen-wide blazing headlines:)

★ EXPLODING ACROSS THE SCREEN! (shot of black clouds rolling ominously from the north windows of top floor Luther Hall; close-up of students scrambling madly under tables and out doorways during a quiet afternoon in the chemistry laboratory);

★ FORTY BRAVE MEN lost in a world they did not understand! (view of Dean Chellevoid gazing pleadingly upon a room full of bewildered-looking, necktie-wearing — no shirts, just neckties — freshmen who can't remember that Gamma and Delta are neither housing units nor high-speed aircraft).

★ THEIRS WAS A DREAM THAT COULD NOT BE . . . (close-up of student committee bent over plans for 1963 Student Body Project — blueprints labeled "Wartburg Student Rathskeller").

★ HIS HEART WAS AFLAME with a fire he could not control! (shows sophomore, hands groping before him and anguished facial expression, stumbling clumsily up cafeteria steps).

★ SHE VOWED TO FOLLOW HIM WHEREVER HE SHOULD GO . . . (distance shot of tight-skirted coed, beanie in one hand, parcels in the other, in frantic pursuit of 5:10 mail pick-up truck disappearing behind Fine Arts Center).

★ MEN AND WOMEN driven by desires they could not suppress! (shot — from safe distance — of student body, one-thousand strong, plunging madly out of convocation in the general direction of the Student Union).

★ ALONE THEY BRAVED an onrushing horde . . . (shot — from equally safe distance — of hapless pair of coeds midway down south Student Union stairway, facing student body, one-thousand strong, plunging madly in the opposite direction).

★ THEY PENETRATED A SEETHING JUNGLE! (shot of book-laden female trio entering Vollmer Hall about that time).

★ NO FORCE ON EARTH could separate them . . . (Dean Oppermann personally attaches first auto hobble of the school year).

★ CHANGES WE HADN'T EXPECTED Department . . .

4-Year Streak Threatened

By Jim Ward

Knights of Wartburg this afternoon will once again host arch-rival Luther at Schield Stadium at 1:30 p.m. in the traditional "Battle of the Ax."

As is always true of a contest of this sort, many experts consider the game as a toss-up because of the long-time Knight-Norse rivalry.

THE LUTHER Norsemen, ranked along with Parsons as the top contenders in this year's Iowa Conference race, will once again be going all out to pick up the win in this important contest.

Not having beaten Wartburg in the last four encounters, Luther will be out to revenge last year's big game, a 7-6 defeat on a rain-soaked field.

Luther, planning to dress its usual horde of gridders, believed to be one of the nation's largest college squads and at last count in the low 80's, will also be sporting many fans from Decorah.

SIX UNIDENTIFIED Knights scrimmage hard in preparation for the encounter with the Norsemen this afternoon.

On defense the ends will be freshman Tom Burress and sophomore Richard Howie, freshman tackles Al Sopha and Jim Nasheim, middle guard Duane Huth, linebackers Ott, Nielsen and Gary Johnson, halfbacks Tim Tower and Ted Johnson, with junior Gary Leeper at safety.

WARTBURG WILL be out after its first win of the season after having lost to Parsons last Saturday. The Knights, not quite up for a tough early-season schedule, held off the strong Parsons attack by drawing at halftime, 7-7.

In the second half the powerful Parsons backfield, averaging well over two hundred and led by star fullback Nat Craddock, cut loose to finish the score at 26-7.

One of the high lights of play was produced by freshman Jim Pyle, who punted for a 40-yard average in 10 attempts.

Only Knight score came on a beautiful diving catch in the end zone by Gary Leeper on a pass from quarterback Bill Fulcher. The extra point was added by halfback Bob Nielsen. All four Parsons touchdowns were tallied by hard-driving Craddock.

Luther won its first conflict of the season last Saturday by defeating the University of Dubuque, 35-6.

Ax Will Go To Luther For Fourth Time Today

By Paul Baumgarten

This afternoon, for the fourth time in five years, an old refrain will be repeated as SBP Dick Buchsteiner hands the Ax to Luther for another year's residence.

In the five-year history of the traveling trophy, Wartburg has held it exactly once, in '59-'60.

This year the Norse retain the trophy by a 425-275 margin. Points are determined by the season records of both schools in athletic play against each other in all sports.

The points are broken down as follows: 100 each for football, basketball, track and baseball. Golf, cross-country, tennis and wrestling get 50 points each. A final 100 points is awarded for the sportsmanship shown by the fans from each school.

In the past year Luther won 100 points for basketball, 100 for track, 50 each in baseball, golf and cross-country and 25 for tennis.

Knights chalked up points in football, 100 points; baseball, 50 points; wrestling, 50; and tennis, 25.

Each school received 50 points for sportsmanship. Swiping the suit of armor does not seem to constitute poor sportsmanship.

The Ax will be presented by Wartburg despite the fact that Luther is retaining it. This is in line with the original agreement which specified the procedure.

On another sporting front, Cross-Country Coach John Kurtz says he is feeling more and more optimistic about the approaching season. He reports that one of his top men, Lothar Columbus, ran the course one second slower than the winning time at the conference meet last year.

Lothar has apparently been working out with weight on his legs to improve his speed.

Let's get out and back the Knights.

ON MAT OR GRIDIRON

Tower of Strength Big Help

By Darrell Jobman

Because of high school friendship, Wartburg, 85 per cent Lutheran, has a Catholic athlete who has made quite a reputation for himself as an outstanding star in two sports.

The star is senior Tim Tower, veteran sparkplug of the Knights' defense in football and a conference champion in wrestling, who transferred to Wartburg after one semester at Coe College because he had several Tama High School buddies—football letterman Roger Pagel and wrestling champion Bill Smith, both seniors now and both Lutherans — going here.

IT DIDN'T take Tower long to make himself known on both the mat and gridiron once he got here.

As a sophomore in his first season of Wartburg football, Tower moved into the starting defensive unit in mid-season on a team that featured Marv Ott, Tom VanWyngarden and others during Wartburg's better football days, and Tower considers this his biggest sports thrill.

But before he could prove his prowess on the mat, Tower had knee troubles which kept him from wrestling his sophomore year. An old injury reoccurred when Tower was doing a dismount from a trampoline after his sophomore football season was about over.

A knee cartilage operation was necessary that winter, and in this Tower had company. Pagel had the same operation performed at the same time to correct a similar knee injury.

"I'VE STILL got her (the removed cartilage) in a jar," Tower said. "It's all shriveled up now."

The knee operation had little effect on Tower's football playing but did cause him to lose a year of wrestling experience, which he said would have been helpful last year.

But Tower's wrestling form seemed to be little bothered by the lack of experience, as he lost only two dual meets last year while helping Wartburg post one of its best mat records in history. Climaxing the season was his winning the 147-pound conference championship, all in his first year on a college mat.

Tower, vice president of W-Club and a business management major here, picked up a lot of experience for his two rugged sports during his high school days.

He lettered in wrestling all four years, finishing second in the district in the 138-pound division in both his junior and senior years and going to the state as a junior. In his last two years Tower said that he never lost a match in dual meets.

TWICE Tower won letters in football at right halfback for Tama on a team that won championships in the old South Iowa Cedar League all four years that he was in high school. In addition, Tower earned three letters in baseball as a shortstop for a total of nine high school letters.

Tower, who gives football a slight edge over wrestling ("wrestling's a close second"), said that the outlook for this season depends a lot on the outcome of today's game.

"We're picked fourth, and we're pretty fired up for Luther," he commented. "If we knock them off, we feel that we can end up pretty near the top."

And Tower was quite optimistic in looking at today's game. None of the squad members, including Tower, can recall a Knight loss to the Norse since Wartburg has been victorious in the last three games with Luther and tied the game four years ago.

Parsons would have to be the favorite for the conference crown, Tower said, partly because of its 26-7 win over the Knights last Saturday in the season opener.

A high school friendship carried on into college has produced quite a profitable return in Wartburg athletic fortunes.

Last Of Tryouts Set For Monday

Last preliminary tryouts for "Squaring the Circle," Wartburg Drama Department's fall production, will be held Monday at 7 p.m.

Final callbacks are scheduled for Tuesday night at 7, according to John Gill, director.

"Squaring the Circle" is a three-act broad farce by Valentine Kataev. The play was first produced in 1922 but still retains all of its originality and enjoyability.

According to the translators, Charles Malamuth and Eugene Lyons, it is "a hilarious comedy of young love under the trying conditions of an extreme housing shortage in new Russia."

The play will run Nov. 29, 30 and Dec. 1.

Enrollment Rises Again

This year's enrollment at Wartburg is larger than ever, totaling 1,116 full-time and part-time students, according to Miss Mattie Harms, registrar.

The 1962 crop of freshmen totals 379, and 289 of last year's freshmen are back. The junior class has 226, and the seniors 165. One graduate student is enrolled this year and 57 part-time students.

Political science seems to be the most popular subject at Wartburg this year. As many as 82 students are enrolled in Political Science 201, and 60 in 209. Both of these classes are overcrowded, and plans are being made to divide them, according to Miss Harms.

Civil Service Examination Here Oct. 13

Applications for the first Civil Service examination to be given on campus this year must be filed by Sept. 27 for the test to be given Oct. 13.

"All juniors and seniors in any major field, regardless of where the interest lies, are encouraged to take the test," according to Melvin Kramer, head of the Business Department.

Several career positions in just about any field of interest are available.

Extra books containing all necessary information, including opportunities available and applications to be mailed in, are available and can be obtained from Dr. Kramer.

Positions to be filled are in various Federal agencies and are located in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States.

Depending upon the qualifications of the candidate, starting salaries will be $4,345 or $5,355 a year. Management Internships with starting salaries of $5,355 or $6,435 a year will also be filled from the applications.

"What is Lutheran Brotherhood anyway?"

Glad you asked...

Here's how we started. First incorporated as The Luther Union, our fraternal life insurance society was formed by nine distinguished Lutherans during a 1917 church convention in St. Paul. After borrowing $6,000 to cover the expenses of obtaining applications, the society issued its first life insurance policies in 1918. Here's what we do. We offer a variety of life insurance, health insurance and retirement plans to all Lutherans. (Purchase of a policy automatically qualifies you as a member of Lutheran Brotherhood.) We also aid the Lutheran Church through an extensive benevolence and fraternal activities program. Here's how we're growing. With more than 1½ billion dollars of insurance in force in June, 1962, Lutheran Brotherhood now is among the leaders of all organizations operating in the insurance field. Surplus, assets, investment earnings and benefits paid to Society members have also risen phenomenally during the past few years. Here's how the future looks. Although Lutheran Brotherhood's gains in all phases of its operation have been sizeable, the management and directors predict even greater growth. More and more Lutherans are realizing that Lutheran Brotherhood offers both amazingly low-cost security and a sound investment opportunity.
